BOMBARDE! Report

This issue of BOMBARDE! is available only in electronic form. If you know of members who would be interested in any of the information enclosed, please print a copy and share it with them. The primary focus of this BOMBARDE! is [1] placement listings [2] recitals, and [3] the important updates and invitations to our very exciting PIPE ORGAN ENCOUNTER. Finally, there is a piece included that I (Sharon Hettinger) read to the Executive Board at our final meeting in May, that you might be interested in reading and/or sharing regarding the importance of music.

UPCOMING RECITALS OF NOTE

Saturday, 30 May 2009, 12 noon. Debut concert of Simon Carrington Chamber Singers; tickets available by calling 816.214.9928. Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral. 13th and Broadway, Kansas City, MO.

Sunday, 31 May 2009, 4 p.m. The Westminster Concert Bell Choir, from Westminster Choir College, Princeton, NJ, in concert. Kathy Ebling-Thorne, director. St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Wornall & Meyer Blvd., Kansas City, MO. The world-renowned handbell choir is presented by St. Andrew's and Grace United Methodist Church, Olathe. Free-will offering. Come early for a good seat.

Sunday, 14 June 2009, 2 p.m. Dr. David Lamb, organist, Grace & Holy Trinity Cathedral, KCMO. Director of Music & Organist in Columbus, IN, at First United Methodist Church, he will open the recital with Guilman's Marche Religieuse, and play works by Marcello, Stanley, Hollins, Saint-Saens, Bach, and Mendelssohn. The second half features works by Denis Bedard—the most interesting title is The Cat Suite (Prelude, Cats at Play, Catnap, and Toc-cat-a)—and the recital concludes with Guilman's Final from the First Organ Sonata.
